The Mason LINE

by Chan Mason

We were interested to hear in a recent talk before the Kiwanis Club by Jack Campbell, S. D. City Manager, that it is possible to annex the City and still retain a certain degree of autonomy. Now lest we get in a tizzy let me restate, it was interesting and might possibly some day be a compromise solution to our complex problem here. Just something to chew on, that's all.

With the city and county in a bit of a dither over falling tourist trade we might give 'em a tip. We're interested in taking a trip into Wyoming this summer, fishin' 'n stuff. So we dropped a note to that effect to the Wyoming Commerce and Industries Bureau. Within a week, we were literally swamped with brochures and letters from Ranches and Resorts from all over Wyoming. A centralized agency is the answer, we would guess.

—ML—

We recently heard the story of the cowboy in the Korean War who found himself in a poker game with some British soldiers. "I'll wager one pound," declared the Britain.

"I don't know how you fellows count your money," grumbled the cowboy, "but I'll jes' raise you a ton."

—ML—

Lloyd Plummer, the bard of Brookside, was telling us of the guy in the New Nash Sedan who drove in to Bill's Self Service and demanded, "Five gallons of gas and change the sheets, please."

Amazing response to the swimming pool carnival set for May 14 and 15. The good honest sweat and toil promised by so many clubs and organizations will make it a success, and the best part of it is that for every dime you spend you're going to get a full dime's value in return. It will be a real buy, that's for sure.

NO HITS, NO RUNS,
ONE ERROR:

Kenny Hall tells of reading in his home town paper the results of a County election held there recently. Returns were all in except for a little town nearby and after frantic investigation it was found that the natives had just plumb forgotten to open the polls.

We witnessed via TV part of the Padre-Angel baseball game last Sat. afternoon. The announcer in between commercials asked for suggestions on how to improve the telecast. Yep, we'll give you one, friend. "Several times somebody let the ball game interfere with the commercials. Gosh man, that used car barker had only repeated his sponsor's telephone number six times before you switched to the last out of the first inning. After all, with only thirteen sponsors you've gotta give 'em a break, you know."

Over My Shoulder

By A. F. "TONY" SONKA

From time to time I come across pieces of material in my files that I think have some historical value for those of us who like to reminisce. Such is a pamphlet that was printed in 1908, the same year my father came to Lemon Grove.

The booklet is titled, "Lemon Grove, San Diego's Attractive Highland Suburb" and was distributed by a firm which listed itself as the Lemon Grove Realty Co. On the front page is a picture of the then new school at Main and Central, where Jack Sanders and his family now live. The school, which doubled the 1908 school capacity, consisted of four rooms and cost $4,500. The First Congregational Church was adjacent the school.

The S. D. Cuyamaca and Eastern Railway, known popularly as "the Cuyamaca," made eight trips a day to town and return. The water supply at that time, the brochure states, came from a reservoir of "pure mountain water in the Cuyamaca Mountains" and was piped to Lemon Grove by the L. G. Mutual Water Co.

In the pamphlet is was claimed that the community was in the "frostless belt" and was "without a single condition which would contribute to malaria, fevers, sunstroke or epidemics."

Some of the material could be used to advertise Lemon Grove today, especially the part which stated "it is far enough from the ocean to lose the raw edges of the ocean breezes, and to be almost wholly free from fog, yet not far enough inland to feel the excessive heat of summer. . . . It is rarely that the thermometer registers as high as 90 degrees. Wind and sand storms are unknown."

At that time a new railway station called "Conklin" had been built in South Lemon Grove but it has since been torn down. The real estate firm promised that the Grove would be "sidewalked, sewered, curbed and parked."

In the center of the publication is a panoramic view of Lemon Grove looking toward San Miguel Mountain from about where Pacific and Olive Sts. intersect now. In that wide sweep of Lemon Grove covering about 10 square miles only 13 houses can be counted.

More Water Flushing for Grove

The La Mesa, Lemon Grove and Spring Valley Irrigation District will be flushing lines in the La Mesa area for the next two or three weeks. Starting April 19 they will be flushing hydrants on the main feed line to Lemon Grove which might result in dirty water in the Lemon Grove area. This work is being expedited in order to give better service.

Operations will be confined to Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, to permit washing and household operations on Monday.

Two things will be accomplished during this flushing program: (1) The water mains will be cleared of any sediments accumulated during the past few months and (2) Fire flows will be taken on each hydrant.

Foothills Bar Group Starts Public Service Program

The Foothills Bar Association, comprised of judges and lawyers in the Lemon Grove, La Mesa and El Cajon areas last week announced a twin program of activities designed to improve public relations and make services of the association available to the Foothills area.

At a breakfast meeting at Rose Hedge Manor, at which the Foothills press was guest, the long range program was outlined.

Leo Hendrickson, school program committee chairman and La Mesa attorney said that a program of youth activity in which seniors in the civic classes of Grossmont and Helix would be shown the practical operation of the courts while practical office experience would be given those viewing futures as legal secretaries. A "day in court" would be part of the program for each of the students. Counseling service for students planning to study law would also be made available.

F. W. Powell, La Mesa attorney who is chairman of the speaker's panel committee said that speakers on more than 20 subjects are available to lay groups. "We want to overcome the movie and tv picturization of lawyers. We want to show that attorneys do not brow-beat witnesses nor are lawyers smart-alecs. They should be better known as they actually are, as sincere, hardworking professional men who have families and cost of living problems just like any other group."

Judge Luther Hussey, of Lemon Grove, who is president of the group, said that many persons fear coming to court and these are inclined to forfeit bails or pay fines because of the fear they have regarding court appearances. A man who comes to my court and says he hasn't had a ticket in ten years will come closer to getting a blue ribbon from me than verbal chastisement or a fine," he confided.

The Foothills Bar group meets twice a month for breakfast. Joe Doerr, El Cajon attorney, is secretary.

Juniors Sponsor Teen-Age Dance

A teen-age dance, launching the Recreation Program, will be held Saturday, April 24, 7:30 p.m. at the Lemon Grove Junior High Cafetorium. The Lemon Grove Woman's Club Juniors are sponsoring this dance with the following members and their husbands acting as hosts and hostesses: Messrs. and Mmes. Fred Cohenour, Ralf Kraft, Leon Meyer and Harold Hatton. Refreshments to be sold will include cokes and popcorn.

Delphians to Look at 'Personality'

Alpha Beta Chi Chapter of Delphian will discuss "The Total Personality—Infancy and Childhood" at Hilltop Chateau, Lemon Grove, Saturday at 10:00 a.m.

Discussion leaders will be Mmes. T. H. Gillespie, Thos. H. Badgett, A. J. Henry, O. A. Patterson, E. A. Uher and E. A. Ross.

As B.W.L. Installed New Officers

The president and immediate past-president and their husbands occupied the seats of honor as installation ceremonies of the Business Women's League officers took place Saturday evening at Casper's. The couple on the left is Mr. and Mrs. Paul Louer. She is past-president. The other couple is Mr. and Mrs. Al Cole.

More than 100 persons joined the Lemon Grove Business Women's League members Saturday at Casper's Rancho for their annual Installation Dinner-Dance.

This installation is viewed by some as one of the most pleasant affairs in the season's business-club activities. Members and guests dined and danced until the wee hours Sunday morning.

Installed were: Mmes. Al Cole, president; Calvin Nicholl, vice-president; I Lauritzen, recording secretary; Harmon Russell, treasurer; Fred Scheneman, corresponding secretary.

The installation ceremony, which is always a colorful event, had nurse-maid caps given as token of the office.

Mrs. Cole, in accepting the charge from Mrs. Paul Louer, immediate past-president, said that "no organization is better than its committee chairladies." She also pointed out that this should be a banner year because of the choice of officers.

The annual event was attended only slightly less than those of former years but this was due to illness of several members. In abscentia, Grant Hadley was nominated to the presidency of the Business Women's Auxilliary, a group facetiously started last year, to assist the women with their many projects. Hadley has been ill for several weeks.

Mrs. Burt Snyder, former president of the League, set the key-note by recalling some of the organization's earlier accomplishments.

An Easter motif was followed at the dinner party and tables had miniature hen's nests with Easter eggs and little fuzzy chicks in them at each place.

Installation and speech-making was held to a minimum and all who attended agreed that each year that affair is the best.

Don Ellis to Be Candidate for School Board

By Mrs. Don Ellis

Friends of Don Ellis have been urging him for some time to be a candidate for the local school board, and he had decided to do so BEFORE he read last week's Dimmer View, a column he greatly enjoys, and with which he usually agrees. He feels that in a democracy there should be more than three candidates for three jobs, so that the people may make a choice when they go to the polls.

Mr. Ellis received his college education at Mississippi A. & M. College, majoring in electrical engineering. He is now in charge of installation and repair of sound equipment at the Naval Training Center. He has resided in Lemon Grove since August, 1942, and has at all times been deeply interested in civic and school affairs. For the past two years he has served on the Grossmont Citizens' Advisory Committee and is a member of the recently organized Lemon Grove Citizens' Advisory Committee. He is also one of a group of interested citizens who have been attending school board meetings for the past year and is as well informed on school problems as it is possible for a non-member of the Board to be. He has two children Bob, who will be graduated from the 8th grade this year, and Donna, a student at San Miguel School.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis are members of the Lemon Grove Lutheran Church, where Ellis teaches a Sunday School class of 3rd graders. He is also a deacon of this church.

April 15th is Last Day to Register

April 15 (Thursday) is the last day for residents to register so that they may vote in the primaries. Ken Rister, deputy registrar said that he would keep open until 9 p.m. on that date in order to accomodate registrants.

His office is at 7580 Broadway in Casteel's Real Estate office.

Town's Main Thorofare May Be Widened If Group's Plan Jells

Without much fanfare and with serious attitude, a group of seventeen Broadway property owners got together last week to discuss possibility of widening Broadway to its 75 foot set back line, making it a full 150 feet all the way from Campo Junction to beyond Massachusetts.

The committee, a Chamber of Commerce sanctioned group, was spearheaded by Harry Griffen, a chamber member and Broadway property owner.

Present were Joe Mack, county road superintendent who advised writing until the ultimate traffic load is known after the freeway is built before taking action; Dr. Willis Miller, county planning director who reiterated his usual advice, that a plan is necessary before any major improvement is undertaken, and Joe Rushing, chief of civil engineering department of the Public Work Department who lives in Lemon Grove who sat in on the discussion as an observer.

Griffen pointed out, following the meeting, that such a move was not expected to draw much enthusiasm at the offset. "This is a group of property owners talking about giving up part of their own property and that connotes a serious attitude. This is in opposition to the kind of group which meets enthusiastically to carve up property which belongs to others."

Walks, curbs, parking and street lights were discussed in addition to traffic problems.

The same matter was brought before the membership of the Lemon Grove Men's Club later in the week and under the chairmanship of George Casteel, the program was endorsed. In a round table discussion it was generally agreed that a blue-print ought to first be developed showing lines and grade levels as was suggested by Griffen's committee, before such questions as traffic load and improvement district be considered.

Griffen said further meetings of the Improvement Committee would be held to expedite the improvement of the thoroughfare.

"This is a long-range program and much study and many meetings will be held before any definite action can be taken," he added.

Dancin' Dudes Plan April Dance

Dancin' Dudes will hold their next dance on Saturday, April 24 in the parish hall at St. John of the Cross Church.

Due to the fact that caller Dell Lake has been transferred to Long Beach future dances will be given on Saturday nights instead of Fridays, as in the past.

The April 24 dance will be a box social with each lady bringing a box lunch, which will be tagged at the door with half a ticket. The other half ticket will be placed in a basket from which the gentlemen will draw for their box lunch and lady friend.

Dancin' Dudes were hosts to the Promenaders of Spring Valley at the last dance in March. Guest callers were Stan Bryan, Helen Migetto, Pete Migetto, Marian Ashton and Frank Dyson.

BIG TURNOUT FOR MASONIC BREAKFAST

More than 275 members of the area's Masonic organizations and their friends attended the third annual Palm Sunday Masonic Breakfast, Sunday at the Lemon Grove Congregational Church Friendship Hall.

The local club has applied for a charter which would permit a lodge locally. This may be accomplished this year, some members believe.

President of the Lemon Grove Masonic Club is "Ozzie" Thorogood. William Wright is proposed Master of the proposed Lodge, William Parsons is proposed Senior Warden and John Dail is proposed Junior Warden.

Gibson Says Voter's Family Is Important

"An assemblyman should take a closer look at the needs of the family man and home owner," according to John Gibson, La Mesa businessman who cross filed for the assembly for the 77th District.

"Juvenile delinquency would be less of a problem if we were to establish a system of inexpensive family type parks in the inland areas suitable for family outings. This money, already earmarked for conservation and recreation, could be diverted from some of the bigger projects in the north state areas where pressure groups have been able to draw off much of these funds," he stated.

"A replanting program of game and fish in this district is also important to our youth. The FBI recently stated that they had no case of dope addiction among juveniles where the youngster took an active part in hunting and fishing sports. I intend to see that residents of this area have the opportunity to enjoy all the recreational advantages they are paying for," he added.

A Lemon Grove "Gibson for Assembly" group is forming and participants will be named next week, a spokesman said.

An Editorial

This space was planned for information concerning the Grossmont Hospital District's bid opening for the million and a quarter dollars hospital.

The district's board members did not supply this information to this newspaper, nor have they informed this newspaper whether or not contracts have been signed, or whether federal or state funds have been received, and what changes are taking place among the board's personnel.

Publicity hand-outs were profuse when the members brought the hospital issue to a vote. They indicated then that there was no other way than through this newspaper of reaching the residents of Lemon Grove and as a result, demanded space. The REVIEW takes the attitude that this condition has not changed by virtue of a successful election and it is still the responsibility of the district's representatives to supply enough information, voluntarily, to keep the property owner, who pays the bill, informed.

In an article titled "The Dimmer View," under the by-line of the editor, this newspaper stated its position on taxing districts several weeks ago. As an extension of these remarks, we add that any taxing district, which does not inform, voluntarily, its district's residents, is as guilty of dishonesty as it would be if they falsified the records. The Dimmer VIEW

by Max Goodwin

I guess almost everyone with an audience bigger than one composed of his little woman and the guy next door feels impelled, on one occasion or another, to take a swing at one of the county agencies to which we pay dollars of honest toil for representation that hardly come under the heading of toil nor honesty.

I couldn't look my Vista La Mesa readers squarely in the face if I didn't nail the County Park and Recreation Department for what I consider shoddy treatment to them and I have the word of five reputable residents of that area to back up my opinion. Edward Kinyon, president of the Vista La Mesa Civic League, angled into the subject the other night following a meeting of the Citizen's Advisory Committee to the Lemon Grove School District. Kinyon told me that the Civic League gave a piece of property to the County four or five years ago with the express understanding that the Park Commission would make it into a recreational area. The property is on King Street in Vista La Mesa, adjacent to the school, and so far not a stone has been moved by the County. The Civic League and residents then proceeded to gather together $1800 which they urged the Park Commission to take to help cover the cost of making the property they had donated into a park. The Commission, through Claude Hupp, chief of Parks and Beaches Division of County Public Works department, has on three occasions, according to my informants, stated that work on the park would commence "immediately." These promises were made in public and I have the assurance that enough witnesses were present to among themselves form a work party to complete the project.

Claude Hupp told me this week, as he has told Vista La Mesa residents, at other times, that work on the park would get under way within the next few days. He promised that water would be piped to the area immediately and when easements can be acquired sewage disposal will be afforded. He admitted the latter may take years.

The Park Commission will not find a sympathetic ear in this column when they complain they are being maligned by me and point to the wonderful parks they have created in other parts of the county. The Vista La Mesa situation only accents the complaint I now publicly register. Lemon Grove, of which Vista La Mesa is a part, so far as school boundaries are concerned, does not have a park. With more population than La Mesa, and paying more tax dollars toward parks than scores of other communities, Lemon Grove has a right to demand that the Park Commission get on with the project.

Just to wrap up this little package of vituperative triviality let me boil it down and repeat it. It's not good to have representatives who are disdainful of the needs of their constituents, for the latter are the very people who make the existence of the department possible.

COMMITTEE LEADERS START SWIMMING POOL DRIVE

Lenox Foto for REVIEW

With plans all but ready for the Lemon Grove Carnival to be held May 14 and 15, the proceeds of which to be used to start a local swimming pool fund, members of the committee look approvingly at the schedule held by Palmer Svalstad.

Enthusiasm marked the first workshop meeting of the Lemon Grove Swimming Pool Committee when assignments were handed out to handle the details of a Lemon Grove Carnival. The carnival, complete with rides, booths, prizes, food and drink, will be held Friday and Saturday, May 14 and 15, at the Lemon Grove Junior High School playgrounds.

The swimming pool program, explained Tom Warburton, chairman, is a long term affair and the success of the carnival will dictate in part the length of time it will take to get the complete job done.

Channing Mason, also a member of the committee, pointed out that Lemon Grove has more children population than La Mesa and that a swimming pool will solve one of the problems of juvenile recreational activities.

C. O. Johnson's Son Assigned to Nebraska Station

Capt. Harold B. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Johnson, 7570 Waite Drive, was home on leave last weak and is now enroute to Lincoln, Nebraska, for duty with the 98th Air Refueling Squadron, flying KC 97's. KC 97's are flying tankers used in refueling bombers in flight.

During World War II Harold was a pilot in the 8th Troop Carrier Squadron in Italy, making supply drops to Partisans in Italy and Yugoslavia and Southern France. Released from the Air Force in December 1945, he was called back to active service in March 1953.

William Mangels Passes at 65

William H. Mangels, 65, 4158 Cordoba St. passed away April 8 at his home in Spring Valley. He is survived by his widow, Viola; three daughters, Hazel Buck of Hawaii; Martha De Lano of Spring Valley and Vera Crews, Lemon Grove. Three surviving sons are Clifford, Glenn and Russell Mangels. Two sisters, Rose Chalkey, a Kansas resident and Sadie Elliott of Florida, and three brothers, Albert, Eli and D.D. Mangels, also survive.

Mr. Mangels came to this area in 1936 from Kansas and was associated with the Whiting Meade and Sullivan Lumber companies. Interment was held at Greenwood.

Civil Defense Notes

Charles Gurley HO 6-3745

Whether postponed or not, the April meeting of the Lemon Grove unit will be held this week Thursday the 15th at 8:00 o'clock at the Youth's Center, according to an announcement made yesterday by Dr. Frank B. Gigliotti.

"We have arranged to show an English motion picture which is a dandy and portrays a character with which we are all familiar, a person who at first will have nothing to do with civil defense or advance preparation of any kind but before it was too late saw the light. We'd tell you more but come and see for yourself.

"We are going to make a special effort to have our most important people on hand this week just to prove to this community that Civil Defense is a live issue here. Someone asked about using their swimming pool for a bomb shelter and our answer is that would be about the worst thing

M. H. P-TA To Support Swimming Pool Drive

The April meeting of the Monterey Heights P-TA was held last Thursday evening in the school auditorium. Mrs. Vance Dittamore, president, brought to the association the recommendations of the executive board that the unit support the Lemon Grove Recreation Commission with a gift of money, and that the unit cooperate with the other organizations of the community on the money raising carnival to be held the 14th and 15th of May for the Swimming Pool fund. The evening's program was the showing of the film "Man Alive" and Dr. Simon Brumbaugh was the guest speaker. Mr. John Thumm gave the inspiration for the evening. The Colors were presented by Den 10 of Pack 8, Mrs. Robert Bailiff leader. Community singing was enjoyed between the business meeting and the program, and was led by Mr. W. Arthur Thomas, accompanied by Mrs. Vance Seal at the piano. Refreshments were served by the afternoon first grade mothers, and the table was decorated with the Easter motifs.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Mr. Editor:

On Tuesday, March 23, I mailed 35 letters to legislators in Washington which I had collected from my Navy neighbors. All concerned the fringe benefits, pay, and the Serviceman's Bill of Rights. I myself had personally written. On Saturday morning, March 27 at 7:40, Congressman Bob Wilson called me from Washington to ask where I had received my information and commenting on the fact that he had received a number of letters from the same general area on the same subjects. The information was gathered at a meeting of the Mary V. Beyer Navy Wives Club No. 96 of which I am a member and historian. It was at this meeting that I got the incentive to urge my friends to write. The point I want to make is that these letters made a definite impression or Bob Wilson wouldn't have bothered with a personal call. To me, this incident proves that any citizen can impress the legislators and get the action they ask for if they will only take the time to make their views known. How else should the legislators know how the pulse of the people beats? It certainly seems worth the effort and postage. Don't you agree?

Sincerely,
JANE DAVIS
3576 Niblick Dr.

Dear Sir:

I am rather hesitant about writing this letter, but I feel that under the circumstances I am compelled to do so because of the generosity of spirit shown by many citizens of the community and throughout the county. I want to thank, through the medium of your good paper, all of the people who came to me and asked me to run for the Legislature. You know that the reason why I couldn't commit myself to such a program is because of the wounds that I suffered in defense of our beloved country. I am tremendously interested in seeing to it that a government of, for and by a free people shall not fail, for if it fails it will perish from the earth.

I came to California some 22 years ago to nurse the wounds that I had received in defense of our way of life. My physical circumstances are such that I can do things from time to time as my health permits but my strength is limited, and I will have to quote the Bible "The spirit is willing but the flesh is weak."

I feel that in having accepted the presidency of the County Taxpayers Association, when so many of our people are burdened with grievous problems of taxation and our responsibility to the schools and to the children of our generation are as they are today and when a great deal of our resources are being thrown to the four winds, that an organization like the Taxpayers Association and my responsibilities as Zone Warden for Civilian Defense gives me all of the opportunity that we need to use in the checks and balances which must always exist in a Republic.

Again I want to take this occasion to thank the more than 75 people who asked me to be a candidate for public office and assure them that under God we shall all put our shoulders to the wheel in consecrating and dedicating ourselves to the purposes that freedom, justice and democracy shall prevail amongst the people of our community, our state and our nation.

Your friend and fellow citizen,
Dr. Frank B. Gigliotti

Public Schools Week To Be Marked With Special Programs

Schools throughout the Lemon Grove District are making plans for the 35th observance of Public Schools Week in California April 25 to 30. Special programs and demonstrations are scheduled by some schools and teachers, others will have certain specified "Open House" hours or evenings, and again, special assembly programs will be held.

Students in the fourth through the eighth grades have entered an essay contest concerning schools and the results and winners of the contest will be announced by the sponsoring Masonic Club later in April.

Since 1919, the Masons have established this week in California, inviting the public to visit and inspect the schools, so that they in turn could be made aware of the accomplishments and the needs of the schools.

Further dates of special programs will be listed here next week.

United Nations Starts Monthly Forums

"People Want to Know" will be the featured topic, Monday at 8 p.m. in the Lounge Room, House of Hospitality, Balboa Park, when the San Diego Chapter for the United Nations inaugurates the first of a series of Monthly Evening Meetings and Forums, open to the public, according to Henry W. Shelton, President. There is no admission charge and no offering taken, in keeping with the Educational Programs and classes presented by the Local Chapter AAUN.

Mr. Harry Horton, San Diego attorney, will answer criticisms of the United Nations, and Miss Anna Mansfield Clark will discuss all questions from the audience on U. N. Agencies.

'NO PARKING' IS WHAT IT MEANS, BUB

LENOX FOTO for the REVIEW

Gene Owens, Encanto resident, scratches his head in perplexity as a "no parking" sign is newly erected on the railroad right-of-way in his town.

C. M. Eichenlaub, S. D. Arizona-Eastern Railway superintendent, indicated that such posting was necessary to establish responsibility for incidents occurring along their right-of-way.

The railway has been in negotiation with the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce for several months concerning a lease for their right-of-way for public parking in Lemon Grove.

The Chamber referred the lease to the County Board of Supervisors. The Board referred it to the County Road Department. Eichenlaub indicated that similar signs would be erected in Lemon Grove soon.

Southern California Exposition to Launch Beauty Queen

DEL MAR — Who the candidates will be for the various elective offices in the county and states is a subject of much interest these days. Just as important to the younger pre-voting age citizens—those in high school and college—is who the pretty girl will be that is elected to reign over the Southern California Exposition and San Diego County Fair combined. Exposition dates are June 25 through July 5. These junior citizens will have their answer Saturday, June 5, three days before their elders make their selections at the polls.

In advance of the queen selection come the preliminary contests held throughout the county to decide each community's candidate. These initial trials, said Barney Newlee, director of special events for the Exposition, will start next month.

Lemon Grove's entry will be named during a special function to be staged by the Lemon Grove Junior Woman's Club at a date and place still to be decided on.

Rules remain the same as in the past. Girls between the ages of 16 through 19, who are single, are eligible to compete. No talent is required. Participants in the finals will be judged in formal attire. Grading will be on beauty, personality, charm and poise.

An all-expense paid air trip to Sacramento, $150 in cash and an 11-day stay at Hotel Del Mar, are among the prizes awaiting the lucky queen. While in the capital city, she will have an opportunity to garner additional laurels and prizes, Newlee said.

Application blanks for the contest can be secured by writing to Special Events Dept., Southern California Exposition, Del Mar, or by contacting Mrs. James A. Martin, 6865 San Miguel, Lemon Grove.

More Warnings from State Tax People

Robert C. Kirkwood, chairman of the Franchise Tax Board, today cautioned the many thousand persons who moved into California during 1953 that they may be liable to file a California income Tax Return. Those individuals who became residents are taxable on their entire income after becoming residents.

Nonresidents are taxable on income for services performed in California and from tangible property located in the state.

Returns for 1953 must be filed by single persons who had a net income of $2,000 or more and married couples who had a net income of $3,500 or more.

Any newcomers to California who are uncertain of their residence or income tax status may call at the local office of the Franchise Tax Board at 230 San Diego Trust and Savings Bank Building, 530 Broadway, San Diego for assistance.

"My next-door neighbor is a jerk," says Bill Neinaber, who has the town's biggest filling station. "He doesn't seem to understand that my aches and pains are much more fascinating than his."

YOU BE THE JUDGE

THE IDEA OF EVIDENCE

Before our modern idea of evidence in science, in daily affairs, and in our courtrooms, men did strange things to "test" truth in a court trial. Our notion of evidence in law courts is actually only a few centuries old. It entered court procedure at about the same time that Gallileo and Newton used scientific evidence to upset older theories of nature.

Before then, men talked to prophets, fortune tellers, and augurs before they acted. These men would look into the sky and find out how many, and what kind of birds flew in from what quarter. Sometimes they looked at the charred entrails of sacrificial animals.

Court tests for truth in the Middle Ages were many, but somewhat drastic.

You might dispute with your neighbor over land. If so, the court might order a test by ordeal. The contestants would walk through fire. They might be tied and cast into water. Or you might meet your opponent with sword and shield. You or your agent might fight it out with your neighbor on the theory that Providence would not let the unjust win. Or, after due rites, the court might toss you both into the water. If you did not drown you won. Or perhaps you both grasped a red hot iron or walked barefoot through hot coals. If you came out without blisters, they believed your story. As you can see, few people went to court of their own will. The risks were many, not the kind you'd choose.

Later in England, where we got most of our law, men had other ways to reach decisions. For example, take the "oath-helpers". Suppose your case was to be tried. You'd not go into court with facts as today. No, you took with you a fixed number of men called "oath-helpers". Oath-helpers would swear by all that's holy that you were a man of your word. After that you would swear that your neighbor had wronged you. In turn, he would bring his oath-helpers, and do the same. More about evidence in later columns.

NOTE: The State Bar of California offers this column for your information so that you may know more about how to act under our laws.

RABBI IRVING HAUSMAN, Sacramento — "Too few parents are friends with their offspring. It is a miracle when good citizens develop in spite of poor guidance by their parents."

NORA EDDINGTON FLYNN HAYMES, Hollywood — "Dick Haymes hasn't paid me a dime of alimony. I don't get any from Errol Flynn either. Guess I'd better look for a job."

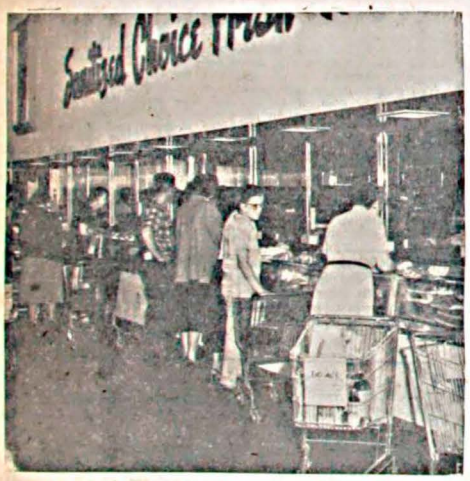
Cleaned and Oven ready



Spaciousness of the self-serve meat section of Big Ace Market is illustrated above. Thousands of shoppers carry out tons of meat each week. Each package is prewrapped in transparent cellophane, plainly marked as to quality and price. You see what you are buying and you know that handling has been kept to a minimum.

Wrapping girls, scientifically trained wrap and weigh meat after it has been expertly cut by our butchers. By such an arrangement the expensive operation of making butchers also act as salesmen is avoided. This savings is passed on to the consumer . . . plus S&H Green stamps.

An inkling of the tremendous storage facilities of Big Ace Market is this corner of the refrigerator. Germicidal lamps add to the clinical cleanliness. Quality meats, of all kinds, are available from these storage rooms at a moments notice, thus insuring freshness.

Gladys Gaboury, 6245 Wonderland, Encanto, shops for three men, her husband David and sons Raymond, 20 and Ronald 14 at Big Ace. A regular patron she has this to say: "I think Big Ace self service meat department is the finest thing in San Diego County. I can depend on finding a full selection at the price I want to pay. Best of all, they give S&H Green Stamps.

Drinks & Chips Available at 'Arsenic' Production

Tickets for the Heartland Players' production of "Arsenic and Old Lace" will be on sale on the nights of the performances at the door, and they are now available at Lane's Men's Wear, 7765 Broadway, Lemon Grove. The tickets are 75c apiece, adults and children alike. The informal seating arrangement of tables and chairs has been so well received in the past productions that it is to be used again for "Arsenic and Old Lace." Soft drinks and potato chips will be available.

Girl Scout News

Monterey Heights Neighborhood Club will meet Wednesday, April 21 at the home of Neighborhood Chairman, Mrs. Raymond Johnson, 1400 Skyline Dr. at 9:30 a.m. Discussion will include plans for day camp and the intermediate rally.

Girl Scout Troop 863 of Monterey Heights had a sewing bee on Monday, April 12 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the home of their leader, Mrs. John Craig. Tuesday they visited Miller's Dairy. Both of these activities are part of the merit badge work they are now working on.

Girls Scout Troop 248, under new leadership of Mrs. Howard Westphal, had a very successful progressive dinner with courses served at the following girls' homes: Joyce Martin, Jeannie Westphal, LuAnn Hines, Lani Bergquist and Karen Miller. The entire meal was prepared by members of the troop. The troop is currently working on their First Aid Badge.

Woman's Club Group Plans Egg Sale

Red eggs, white eggs, green eggs! You can have your pick on Thursday and Friday.

Vogue Section of the Lemon Grove Woman's Club will sell Easter eggs on those days in the Plaza from 9:30 a.m. till 5:00 p.m. They will also offer eggs for use as center pieces, place cards and Easter decorations.

Citizenship Club Guests of Council

Members of the Gold and Green Citizenship Clubs of the Lemon Grove Junior High School were guests of the school student counctil on Friday, April 9 at a theater party as an award for their efforts during the first two report card periods. They enjoyed a Red Skelton picture, plus selected short features, at the Grove Theater beginning at 12:30. With Keith Dolan, faculty advisor, as chaperon, approximately one hundred and fifty boys and girls from the sixth, seventh, and eighth grades attended the special show.

VLM Students Visit Museum of Man

The fourth grade class in Mrs. Emma Tait's group at Vista La Mesa School recently visited the Indian Room of the Museum of Man in Balboa Park. The children were particularly interested in the Mexican pottery, copper work, and basketry of the California Indians.

Mothers from the class who furnished transportation were Mmes. Charles D. Wood, Louise S. Showkey, Thomas Forbes, William J. Smith, and George Novak.

Mrs. Haag Named to Executive Board of Hospital Group

The Lemon Grove area, by virtue of its fast-growing population, now has a second membership on the Executive Board of the Grossmont Hospital Women's Auxiliary, giving this area equal status with La Mesa and El Cajon. Mrs. Herbert S. Haag, of 3254 Harris St., who has been one of the most active and effective workers of the local group, will represent this area on the board along with Mrs. Paul Fellows.

Activity and accomplishment are nothing new for Mrs. Haag, wife of "Skip" Haag, and mother of two active small boys. She formerly held a pilot's license in Honolulu; was shot down by the Japanese; edited the Alcoa News (Aluminum Co. of America) in the Los Angeles area; and, directed publicity for Timberline Lodge, a million dollar ski resort in Oregon.

Mrs. Haag and the entire Auxiliary membership are now busily at work on the May Day Fair, to be held on the grounds of Grossmont High School, May 1, 11 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. This Fair, in which Lemon Grove merchants are participating most concretely and helpfully, promises to be one of the gala events of the season.

Red Cross Column

By CHARLES GURLEY
Public Information Chairman

The April meeting of the Lemon Grove branch of the Red Cross was held Tuesday morning at the Woman's Club, Mrs. G. R. Roberts presiding. Mrs. A. J. Huebsch made the Treasurer's Report; Mrs. J. H. Woody gave the report of the recent membership and fund drive which isn't quite complete; Mrs. Malcomb Blevens gave a report on the production activity of the San Diego branch and Mrs. R. L. Castiglia gave a report on the production activity of our own group.

In addition to the above mentioned, the following were present; Mrs. W. H. Eager, Mrs. Charles F. Taylor, Mrs. Norris, Mrs. Newton, Mrs. Rice, Mrs. Snell and W. Arthur Thomas, Robert Baird and Charles Gurley.

Robert Baird reported of the growing popularity of the hobby of stamp collecting among the patients at the U. S. Naval Hospital and suggested that the people of Lemon Grove might find a great number of discontinued stamp collections laying around our homes and which if turned in to our Red Cross branch might be turned in to the Naval Hospital where they would be highly appreciated.

EGG DISPLAY AT LINDLEY'S

The candy Easter Egg display at Lindley's Drug Store will remain intact thru Sunday night for the benefit of local youngsters.

The display comprised of candy eggs and candy bunnies has attracted considerable attention among the young set for the past ten days.

Mr. Paul Cheatham Hosts Band Members

Paul Cheatham, director of instrumental music in the Lemon Grove Schools, recently was host to members of the Lemon Grove Elementary Band at a concert at Russ Auditorium given by the Joliet Grade School Concert Band. This band is nationally famous and has won so many top awards that it stands in a class by itself. The major achievement of the program was the band's performance of Tchaikowsky's "Pathetique Symphony," played in its entirety in the conductor's arrangement. Another audience favorite was the "Meditation" from Massenet's "Thais," featuring five flutists. Various novelty numbers completed the program.

The members of the band and their parents expressed gratitude to Mr. Cheatham for giving them this opportunity that many might otherwise have missed.

REV. HENRY SCHERER, L. A. pastor—"Temptation really is the devil's compliment. He never tempts anyone who isn't worth the trouble."

DR. RALPH J. GAMPELL, Los Altos — "You don't get ulcers from what you eat but from what's eating you."

Music Parents to Host Card Party

On April 21 at 7:30 in the Junior High Cafetorium the Lemon Grove Music Parents will give a card party to swell the treasury. If enough is cleared the organization will buy a new instrument for the band or orchestra. Chairman for this event is Mr. Will Dawson. The refreshment committee consists of Mrs. Will Dawson, Mrs. Jas. Conlee, and Mrs. John Bates. Mrs. Vernon Linden is decorations chairman and plans that they shall have a musical spring motif. The following people have already reserved tables: Mrs. J. G. McMahon, Mrs. Vernon Linden, Mr. Paul Cheatham, Mrs. John Cornelius, Mr. Will Dawson, Mrs. John Madsen, Mrs. Gerhardt Nisleit, and Mr. Ben Schei. All members of the Music Parents Club will have tickets for sale, and the public is urged to

Vista La Mesa Christian Church

Special Easter services will begin at Vista La Mesa Christian Church with a candle light communion service from 7:30 to 8:00 p.m. on Maundy Thursday. Donald C. Jones is pastor.

Sunday School classes will be held at 9 a.m. and repeated at 10 a.m. for all age groups.

The cantata, "The First Easter," will be presented by the combined choirs under the direction of Richard Hendee at 7:30 p.m.

Farewell Party For Mrs. Bowers

Mrs. Howard Bowers, 3710 Costabella, will be guest of honor at a farewell luncheon party Friday in the home of Mrs. Chas. W. Brown at 2211 Massachusetts.

The old and new board members of the Lemon Grove Woman's Club Seniors will say farewell to Mrs. Bowers, ways and means chairman of last year's board, as she plans to leave Lemon Grove next week for her new home in Utah.

Music Groups Members Get Ticket-Selling Awards

At the April 6 meeting of Helix High Band and Orchestra Parents Club, it was voted unanimously, to reward those students of band and orchestra, who worked so hard selling tickets to the recent fashion show "The Rustle of Spring."

Mary Rewicz, who is drum majorette of the marching band and also plays viola in the orchestra and string ensemble, won first prize of five dollars by selling 83 tickets. Ted Darnaud, who plays trumpet in the concert band, won three dollars by selling 75 tickets. Jim Castle who also plays trumpet and is a Freshman this year at Helix won third prize of two dollars for selling 69 tickets.

Smile . . . Sweet young Helix thing, after receiving a proposal after last year's Helix High junior-senior prom: "I love you, Oswald, but I can't go around marrying every man I'm in love with."

—o—

Congratulations . . . to Helen Hommersand who won first prize of $50 and Fred Hearth who won second prize of $25 in the San Diego County U.N. contest (Both Helen and Fred are Helix students.)

Congrats to the newly elected junior class officers. They are: Ronnie Svalstad, president; Patsy Burke, vice president; Kris Johnston, secretary; Dianne Curtis, treasurer. The best part about it is that Ronnie, Patsy and Kris are all from Lemon Grove.

. . . . Congrats to the newly elected sophomore class officers for next year! They are as follows: Russel Dahlquist, president; Beverly Svalstad, vice president; Mildred Yamashita, secretary; and Judy Chiville, treasurer.

—o—

Summer School . . . If you are interested in attending summer school, please see your counselor as soon as possible, to obtain an enrollement application. The deadline is April 23.

—o—

What's Happening? . . . April 18 — Sunday — Easter Sunday — Let's all go to the church of our choice. April 21 — Wednesday — Assembly—Trampoline, athletes.

—o—

"The Fortune Teller" . . . Victor Herbert's "Fortune Teller" is being presented by the ASB and Music Department of Helix High. There will be lively music, dances, orchestra numbers, gypsy choruses, singing, acting and other entertainment. The time is at 8 p.m. on Tuesday, April 27 and Wednesday, April 28. The place is the Grossmont auditorium with donation of 75c. All proceeds go to the Heix Hammond Organ fund. Let's all attend this beautiful operetta.

—o—

Contest-Time . . . Congratulations goes to a sixteen year old Helix High junior named Jim Lindsley of 7310 Broadway in Lemon Grove.

The correct answer was "Dropsy." Contest time will temporarily be dropped from my column for an indefinite period of time, due to other news of more importance. I'd like to thank all those who won and tried to win my contests. Watch for information concerning the return of "Contest-Time." Thank you!

—o—

Attention all Seniors . . . April 16 (Friday) is absolutely the last day to pay your $2.50 to Stan Davies for the Senior Banquet. Money can be paid during both lunch periods in the A.S.B. office. Don't forget.

—o—

Poster Publicity . . . When placing posters in the halls for elections, etc., please use scotch tape only, as paper tape is very difficult to remove.

—o—

New President . . . Tom Welbaum was recently elected president of the Lemon Grove Hi-Y. Other officers are: Ken Stratton, vice president; Leo Kennison, secretary; Tom Simmons, treasurer; and Jimmy Carter, sergeant-at-arms. Good going Tom! By the by, Tom's dad is Helix's varsity football and baseball coach.

—o—

Interview of a Helix Songleader . . . "Marjorie Tripp"—senior—pretty—wants to go to Pomona—continue on with her music—choir is her favorite class—she's chairman of the senior announcement committee. She's in C.S.F. and the La Camarata's—likes all kinds of music—likes to hear Kathryn Grayson sing—eats spaghetti—how does she like school? pretty good—spirit is real fine, so she thinks—likes to eat at Valle's.

Throwin' the Bull . . . This week's editorial is again concerned with track. But this time I'll stick strictly with good ole Helix. I want to say, brag, boast, shout (whatever you want to call it) about our team. Yes, that's right, Helix has never won a league track meet. We've come pretty durn close though. But I don't want to write on the physical side of track. I want to tell everybody about the swell bunch of guys that are on the track team. I happen to be lucky enough to be on the "A" team and I'm proud of it. Every meet Helix gets into they go down usually, but they go down fighting to the very last event. The guys are full of encouragement and they strive to help out their buddies. Sometimes the weather is against us. Sometimes our runners are sick. Sometimes it's just us that fail to function at full capacity. But through the thick and thin, the guys take it in their stride.

Some meets the under-rated boys tear up and the first stringers seem to be a little fagged. Most of the time it is the other way around. But as I said before, the fellows are good sports and they are excellent losers as well as winners.

And not only should this article be mainly about track but about the other spring sports at Helix: Baseball, golf and tennis? Same goes with them. Congratulations you guys! Keep trying and keep that old spirit and friendliness deep inside you no matter what you do.

PEANUT BRIGADE LEADS LOCAL CAMPFIRE DRIVE

Camp Fire Girls are profiting from the Lemon Grove sale of peanuts for funds for the San Diego Area Camp.

The girls always find generous response among the Lemon Grove residents and cooperation from the local business people.

The Chamber of Commerce was assigned the job of acquiring rides and obtaining supplies which would be distributed thru booths which will total about 30.

About 100 thousand tickets, worth 10c each in trade at the carnival, will be distributed by the committee mostly through P-TA. organizations. Mrs. J. Dail reported the project has caught the imagination of the youngsters in the community and their extreme enthusiasm should be considerable help with the script tickets.

Tickets will go on sale next week, the committee stated.

Springtime Motif For Woman's Club Dessert Party

Seasonal flowers will create a springtime atmosphere in the newly decorated clubhouse at a benefit dessert card party to be held April 20, at 12:30 by the Lemon Grove Woman's Club.

Mrs. H. J. Warner, general chairman, has chosen this date which will afford the opportunity for a second showing of Easter bonnets; she promises a generous dessert course served by her committee, Mrs. Alta Lemke and Mrs. D. D. Lairsey, assisted by the club's new members.

Mrs. L. D. Newton is in charge of decorations and Mrs. J. E. Sonka has again contributed a most attractive prize in addition to other desirable door prizes.

The public is invited and reservations are not necessary.

Local Firm to Add to Building

A Lemon Grove firm in business less than one year announced May plans for expansion of the physical property.

L. J. Glaser, proprietor of the Lemon Grove Radiator Shop, Broadway and Grove St., said this week that he would build two additional business locations on the Grove Street side of his property. These locations will be available for rentals, he said.

Careers Offered In Library Work

As graduation time approaches, more young people almost through with their four years of college, must make some definite decisions about their future careers. Among the careers from which they may choose is librarianship, a rapidly-growing profession.

Marco Thorne, assistant city librarian and chairman of the recruitment committee of the California Library Association, emphasized that as in other professions, such as medicine, law, engineering and others, graduate training is required after college graduation. He also pointed out that of the 36 accredited library schools of graduate standing in the country, two are in California.

"Here in California, and especially in San Diego, we need the interest of more local young people in librarianship," he said. "There is a continuing growth of all types of libraries, public, special, school, and as they grow, so does the need for librarians."

Information about entering the field may be obtained by calling Mr. Thorne at the San Diego Public Library.

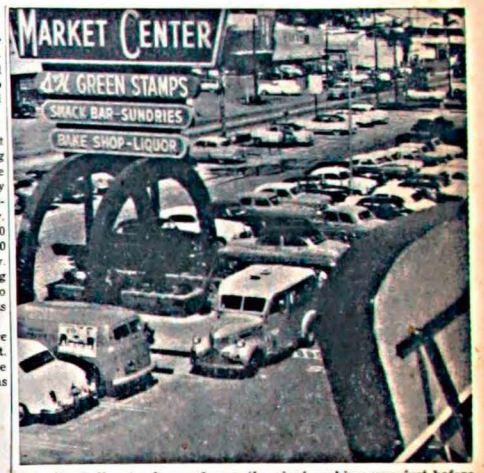
.....Big Ace Plans To Expand!

This is part of the unprecedented turnout which enjoyed the barbecue and salad, and other good things to eat. A line of nearly six thousand formed but food had been prepared for only two thousand to handle the expected turnout from 1800 invitations.

The crowds which turned out for the preview and opening events of the Big Ace Market were unprecedented. Traffic already tightened became almost impossible during the opening preview. Invitations sent to about 1100 guests resulted in almost 10,000 visitors at an evening prebiew. Whatever else might be said, Big Ace has come to Lemon Grove to stay and play a big role in its destiny.

Already Big Ace officials are planning expansion of the market. So far a new structure to house produce chilling equipment has been started!



As the helicopter hovered over the giant parking area just before settling on the roof, there were few parking berths for additional customers. The opening turnout exceeded expectations by 4 to 1, according to Banister.

Trinity Presbyterian Church Notes

Two large congregations heard the Rev. Arthur Lee Odell, assistant pastor at El Monte on Palm Sunday. Mr. Odell will have as his topic Easter Sunday, "The Power of His Resurrection."

The Sunday School Class is growing. Our subject "Christianity of Main Street," last Sunday morning brought out some very interesting thoughts and lively discussion. Any one not now attending an Adult Sunday School Class is cordially invited to come and hear one of the finest S. S. Teachers in this territory.

The Women's Association Executive Meeting will have a joint session of both afternoon and evening groups at 1:00 p.m., Tuesday April 20 in Fellowship Hall.

Good Friday will be observed, Friday from 1 to 2 p.m., with Dr. Frank Gigliotti in charge of the service.

Due to the Sunrise Services Easter morning the Clipper Club has postponed its regular meeting to Saturday, April 24.

Each year, about one out of every 16 persons in the United States suffers an accident at an average cost of about $800.

Founder of L. G. Woman's Club Honored

Mrs. C. H. Shellbach, founder and first president of the Lemon Grove Woman's Club in 1912, received her past president's pin just 42 years later at a luncheon and meeting last week of the Lemon Grove Woman's Club.

Mrs. David Hentigan also presented pins to Mrs. Fred B. Wright and Mrs. L. D. Newton at the impressive occasion saying that "the club is built on a foundation of past work which has made us strong."

Luncheon was served at separate tables for members whose birthdays occur in each month; the centerpieces were made of flowers for the respective months.

Mrs. A. P. Schnell, smiling radiantly, cut the huge birthday cake and Mrs. I. H. Webber led the group in singing "Happy Birthday."

A vocal rendition by Miss Diane Lairsey followed and Mrs. E. L. Du Chemin was welcomed as a new member.
